

26 The elements: fire

Key words: passion, motivation, action

It came unannounced, softly but irremediably. We felt the call from within. We needed to make this stop. It was time for us to connect to the core, to the elements. The first one showing itself was fire.

We smile as we should have seen it coming, after all the Sun is a giant ball of fire, bringing us fire... But Fire is far more. We close our eyes and welcome it into our journey.

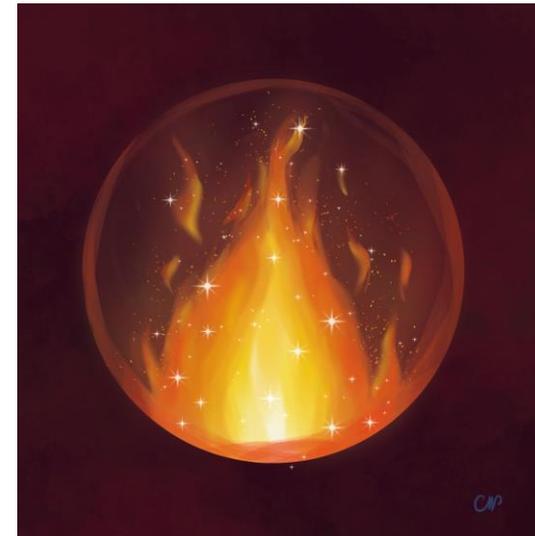

And it sure is. Passion, action, motivation, Fire is burning high within us. Fire leads us out of our comfort zone, it gives life to our curiosity, to this need to explore we feel at times. We find courage to step up, to fight thanks to this element.

Fire is the wild one, this fiery will to go further, deeper, higher, stronger. It brings us this passion for life, this warmth that brings us back to life after we have burst into ashes. Untamed, it can be devastating, blind to consequences. But once accepted as part of our being, Fire will be the last one to stand by our side, this last spark of will when everything seems to go against us. We can then turn to our inner flame, and ignite our inner warrior to overcome what blocks us.

Fire is enthusiasm, is joy, is protection too. We just need to learn to know it, to explore it, and to accept it. Fire is the life in its wildest form, and if we embrace its wisdom, we will be able to accomplish a lot more than we expect.

The energy of Fire can take us to unknown territories, with the assurance that we will find what we need there.

As we sit by the bonfire, we close our eyes, to welcome it. The journey only begins.

You need to ignite your inner flame.

Let Fire bring you the energy and will to go where you are meant to go. Let it drive you and protect you.

It's time for you to let your passion, curiosity come into reality, to act upon them.

You need to let Fire warm you and bring you this enthusiasm and joy you need to pursue your journey.

Let Fire fill you with Life, warmth, light.

Let it show you what you are able to accomplish, when you are guided by your passions.

Don't let it take over, though, but use it as a source of energy and inspiration.
